The front of the blank membership card above is a copy of a membership card in the Virginia Museum of History & Culture collection. The Equal Suffrage League of Virginia, founded in 1909, gave women in the Commonwealth an organized group to help fight for the right to vote. This card was given to the museum by a woman named Adele Clark, who helped start the Equal Suffrage League of Virginia.

- Where was the Equal Suffrage League of Virginia located?
- Do you have any questions about any of the words or information on this card?

You can learn more about the Equal Suffrage League by clicking the link at the bottom of the page. Thanks to the 19th Amendment in 1920, the Equal Suffrage League no longer exists, but that doesn't mean women have stopped fighting for what they believe in since they won the right to vote.

Fill out this blank Equal Suffrage League Card to show your support for women voters! What are some other causes YOU think people should fight for now that women have the right to vote? You can create a membership card that reflects a cause you are excited about!
