New Collectible Holiday Ornament from the Virginia Museum of History & Culture

Richmond, VA — For holiday shopping, the Virginia Museum of History & Culture (VMHC) has a lovely new and collectible holiday ornament.

The Official 2019 Virginia History Ornament features a magnolia wreath with iconic symbols of Virginia’s history, including a tennis racket to remember the legacy of Arthur Ashe, a fiddle and bow highlighting the rich musical tradition of Southwest Virginia’s Crooked Road, the Capitol at Colonial Williamsburg, an icon of Roanoke - the Norfolk and Western J611 train, a foxhunter and American foxhound from Middleburg, Virginia, and the iconic Iwo Jima Memorial in Arlington, Virginia. Proceeds from the sales of the ornament benefit VMHC educational initiatives.

The ornament is available for sale at https://www.shopvirginiahistory.org/2019Ornament.

The Virginia Museum of History & Culture is owned and operated by the Virginia Historical Society — a private, non-profit organization established in 1831. The historical society is the oldest cultural organization in Virginia, and one of the oldest and most distinguished history organizations in the nation. For use in its state history museum and its renowned research library, the historical society cares for a collection of nearly nine million items representing the ever-evolving story of Virginia.

The Virginia Museum of History & Culture is located at 428 N Arthur Ashe Boulevard in Richmond’s Museum District. Hours are Monday – Sunday 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. for the galleries and museum shop, Monday – Saturday 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. for the research library.
